

www.boqueteoutdooradventures.com

Hikes You Can Do On Your Own

For transport to trailhead, hire any local taxi driver or call Rony @ 6527-6373.

It is wise to arrange your return trip in advance, as taxis do not frequently pass by the trailhead.

Trail Name:	PIPELINE
Trail Location:	Bajo Mono
Duration of Hike:	4 hours round trip
Difficulty (Class 1-5)	3 (Moderate)
Scenic Factor (1-10):	8 (Virgin Cloud Forest, Birding, etc)

Trail Description: Meanders through virgin cloud forest and concludes at a spectacular waterfall, complete with pool for swimming.

Directions from central park in Boquete to trail head:

Drive out of town toward Los Naranjos. After Los Naranjos Gimnasio and soccer field, take a right toward Bajo Mono. When you come to a t-intersection, take a right. The trailhead is the first dirt road that you see on your immediate left. Initially the trail is a road but narrows to single track after about an hour of walking.

Directions from trail end to Boquete: Same in reverse.

GPS Coordinates of trail head:

GPS Coord. of summit:

Transportation Options and Costs (taxi, bus, etc.): Taxi from town should be $2-$3 one way. It is wise to arrange a pick up for your return trip back into town.

Access issues (private land, permission, etc.): None known

Known hazards:

None significant, several small creek crossings. Upper end of the trail is a bit steeper and at times, overgrown. Be sure to bring water, snacks, first aid kit and raingear and good hiking shoes or wellies.